

NEWS FROM MAUI

Senator and Mrs. Hocking Doing Europe.

work of Board of Registration.
Dedication of Lahaina's
New Church.

MAUI, April 17, 1897.

Nine Chinese gamblers were brought before District Magistrate Halstead at Wailuku on the 5th. Five of them were acquitted and four fined $10 each. These Celestials were the cause of the recent melee at Camp 5, Spreckelsville, in which 14 policemen and 200 or 300 Chinamen were engaged.

Thirty-one teachers took the examinations, held at Wailuku during the 9th and 10th. Messrs. J. A. Moore and Sam Kekilo were in charge.

Senator Albert Hocking and bride have been recently "doing" Southern Europe. During their tour they have visited Paris, Lyons, Marseilles, Monte Carlo, Genoa, Naples, Rome and Venice. They will next travel through Switzerland and possibly extend their tour through Northern Europe.

The Board of Registration held their first meetings at Hana Post Office during the 15th and 16th.

Some of the better class of Hawaiians are kept from registering because of neglect in paying 1896's taxes prior to January 1, 1897. All the foreigners and a large part of the more intelligent natives are loyal to the Government; while, on the other hand, the "Aloha Aina" has still much influence with Hawaiians of lesser intelligence. Monday, the 19th, the board will sit at Kula.

Two delegations of Sunday School members from Makawao, one from Wailuku and one from Hana, departed for Lahaina today. The dedication of the new Wailuku Church of Lahaina and the Maui Sunday School Convention will take place during the 18th and 19th. The Claudine will take members of Sunday Schools at half rates.

Surveyor Hugh Howell has just completed his survey of a road through the coffee lands of Hana District. Between 2,500 and 4,000 acres of the finest coffee land will be soon opened up at Nahiku.

Friday evening (the 16th) the Makawao Literary Society held a meeting at Glenside, the Hana residence of D. D. Baldwin. The subject of the entertainment was "Babies." Cradle songs of different nations were introduced and made the program of a highly interesting nature.

By far the most famous of the April fool jokes which were played during the 1st inst. was the issue of many invitations to Hana people to attend a ball and an ice cream party at the residence of Manager McLane of Mokae, during the evening of April 1st. Only two really put in an appearance at the house, but quite a number made elaborate preparations to attend, but were deterred at the last moment by a report that the whole thing was a "take."

Hana prophets maintain that the struggle now in progress of construction on the Native Protestant Church will be finished inside of three or four years.

George Copp of Makawao is now head luma of Spreckelsville plantation. A. Gross of Mokae is the new head luma at Kipahulu, vice Cunningham. H. Zoller of Hana succeeds Mr. Gross as head luma of Kipahulu.

The Onsted-McGettigan cottage at Hana, which is a symphony in red and green, has been recently much improved by the addition of a spacious lawn. The doctor is also having a new office built in the yard.

Manager Gjerdum of Hana entertained the members of the Board of Registration at dinner the evening of the 15th inst.

About one-third of the wrecked Leahi is high and dry on the reef in Kahului Harbor, not far from the landing.

The steam launch Moha is still on the beach not far from Konaue. It is allowed to remain much longer as it will not be of great value for sea-going purposes.

No arrivals in Kahului Harbor, though the sugar is piling up in the various warehouses.

The long-continued drought so early in the season is the leading subject of interest on Maui.

Ex-Judge Daniels Suicides.

News comes from Maui that ex-Judge Daniels of Wailuku, Maui, shot and instantly killed himself between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at Kailua, Hamakua, Maui. The funeral took place from his home in Wailuku, Sunday.

Not much news regarding the suicide, could be gained, as the Claudine left so soon after it took place. The deceased ex-judge was in charge of a water ditch at Huelo. The shot which killed him was from a revolver.

Mrs. A. Inven, residing at 720 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her.
